

The following is all based on the recent government announcement.

From 17th July all rooms will be available to book for all bands / professional and amateur with no restrictions.

Room B (Our small room) is recommended for up to 3 people.
Rooms A and C no limit but recommended for up to 6 people.
(Room C being our largest room)

All 3 studios will be available to book.

A 30 minute buffer between slots will continue to be in place to allow bands a little more time before and after their slots to setup/pack down and tidy up ready for the next band as well as make spaces in the car park.

Cleaning stations will always be provided in every studio.

We will continue to provide online mixing and mastering services.

Any problems please get in touch.
